Dear Parents,

A Formal Talk for Parents on “How to Prepare for Primary One Adaptation”

A formal talk on “How to Prepare for Primary One Adaptation” is aimed at assisting parents to prepare their child(ren)’s for the transition to primary school. Parents should be ready with the mindset: understand the challenges their child(ren) may face and be ready for supporting and encouraging them. Meanwhile, parents should understand the situation of the school for effective communication with teachers and the school. The purpose of the talk is to help parents know about the school life of Primary One so that a smooth transition for children can be achieved. Details about the lecture are as follows:
