

1st February, 2024

Dear Parents,

Parent-Child Cooking Class

The school will hold a special event called " Parent-Child Cooking Class", allowing you and your children to enjoy sweet parent-child time together. In this activity, you and your children will have the opportunity to learn how to make pizza and how to use kitchen tools. You and your child will participate in the making process, discuss and solve problems, and share the results together. We believe that this cooking class will bring you and your children a pleasant learning and interactive experience. This is not only an opportunity to make delicious food, but also a precious moment to boost parent-child bonding. Details of the event are as follows:
